NEW YORK STATE PARKS & MUSEUM PASSES

The library has passes available to borrow using your Mannsville Free Library card. The passes grant reduced or no cost admission to various sites. Available passes include the following.

- NYS Empire Parks pass provides unlimited day use and vehicle entry to most facilities operated by New York State Parks and State Dept. of Environmental Conservation including forests, beaches, trails, and more!
- The Wild Center, Tupper Lake pass admits 2 adults at a 50% discount ($10) and free admission for up to four youth ages 5-17. Children age 4 & under are always free and are not counted as part of the four youth admissions.
- The Children's Museum of Oswego Weekly Family Membership pass provides admission for up to 5 individuals living in 1 household. (Note: All children must live in the same household.)

LOOK WHAT'S NEW!

This summer the library purchased a new storage shed from North Country Storage Barn. A dedication will be held this fall. Be on the lookout for a date!

The shed houses an on-going used book sale at $1.00 per bag.

What a great deal.
A bag of books for a buck!

Come check out the sale when you see the shed doors open.

Our Community Partnerships Throughout the Year

- The library gave out free books at the Mannsville Manor Elementary School Open House and provided a gift basket for the One Book, One Read program.
- The library handed out treats, bookmarks, pencils and magnets last Halloween at Mannsville Village Offices and distributed free books during the Christmas tree lighting and hayride.
- The library sold books at a craft fair fundraiser held by Mannsville Manor Fire Department Auxiliary.
- WPBS and NYS Assemblyman Will Barclay donated summer reading booklets for distribution at the library.
- Assemblyman Will Barclay donated free Covid-19 test kits for community distribution at the library.
- The Ice Cream Shoppe displayed our Storywalk® boards all summer long. Books were displayed for two weeks and then changed out for new books.
- Thanks to North County Library System and Stewarts Shops for grants providing funding for Storywalk® books, signs, and lamination materials.
